5. THE ADMISSION STATEMENT

The Admission Statement is an opportunity to express yourself and to share your ideas, interests and expectations about social work. Social work involves working directly with people with a wide range of needs, problems and values. The Admission Statement is an opportunity to describe both your understanding of and approach to social issues, and your expectations of social work education as a preparation for social work practice.

At NVIT, two social work faculty members evaluate the admission statement. This is an anonymous process, so please do not put your name on your admission statement.

Two copies of the typewritten Admission Statement are required in which you respond to the following questions. Please answer each question with a 300 or 400 type written word response per question.

1. Why do you want to be a social worker? Discuss family, community or educational experiences that have influenced your decision.
2. Describe your work and volunteer experience (including practicum). Discuss how these experiences have influenced your decision to become a social worker.
3. Describe the values, ethics and characteristics of an effective social worker? Evaluate yourself in relation to these criteria.
4. What are two important social issues that affect individuals, your community or the world at large? State your views on these issues, your involvement, and your ideas for action.
5. Discuss what you expect from your social work education and how you will be involved in order to prepare for a professional social work practice.

Your Admission Statements are evaluated according to the following criteria:

Self-Evaluation

- Demonstrates the capacity for open self-reflection.
- Demonstrates an awareness of strengths and limitations.
- Demonstrates learning from life experience.

Evaluation of Social Issues

- Demonstrates sensitivity toward situations and conditions of disadvantage.
- Articulates personal actions taken or social actions required.
- Demonstrates a capacity for creativity and originality in interventions.

Critical Analysis

- Demonstrates an ability to question commonly accepted 'truths'.
- Demonstrates the ability to make inferences from specific examples to abstract concepts.

Experience

- Paid or volunteer human service/social work experience
- Non-human service/social work paid or volunteer

Communication

- Applies adequate grammar, spelling, punctuation & organization.
- Conceptualizes ideas and experiences well.
- Communicates clearly and succinctly.
