

BC Oil & Gas Commission Bursary Award

2021 Application

Purpose:

The BC Oil and Gas Commission (Commission) is a single-window regulatory agency with responsibilities for overseeing oil, gas and renewable geothermal operations in British Columbia. The Commission oversees activities from exploration and development, to pipeline transportation and reclamation.

The Commission's Indigenous Education Program is a partnership with several post-secondary institutions across the province to provide scholarships and training programs for Indigenous peoples. The goal of this program is to provide Indigenous people with tangible skills that will benefit them and their communities and promote First Nations and Indigenous peoples' participation in Commission operations beyond the consultation process. This is just one of the many steps the Commission is taking towards a more holistic Indigenous presence throughout the oil and gas regulatory cycle.

Eligibility:

Awarded to Indigenous students from BC First Nations groups (non-status/self-identifying included), enrolled in minimum 60% course loads in any program or field. The students must be in good academic standing (3.0 GPA, B average) and demonstrate financial need. The students are expected to submit applications and financial need statements.

Value:

Three (3) $1000 bursaries awarded to full-time Indigenous students from BC First Nations groups (non-status/self-identifying included). One award will be granted to a student attending the Merritt campus, one attending the Vancouver campus and one attending Community Education.

Process:

Students must complete the following application checklist:

- Complete and sign the application form.
- Fill out the budget information sheet.
- Complete a one-page description of their financial circumstances while attending school.

Deadline (Extended Date- Vancouver Campus and Community Education Categories Only):

The NVIT Registration Office must receive applications by 4:30pm on Sept 1, 2021. Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted. Please drop off or email awards package. Students may appeal the award decision by submitting a written letter to the awards adjudication committee attention:
