

Somang Mission Community Bursary

2019 Application

Purpose:

The Somang Mission Community recognizes the sad history Western Christians have imposed on the Aboriginal peoples of this land. We, as Christians, are responsible for this situation and seek forgiveness. The Somang Mission Community helps Aboriginal people by restoring their legitimate rights, of which, were deprived because of our Western people. We believe, the best way to do so, is to empower the succeeding Aboriginal generations by encouraging and sponsoring Aboriginal students to complete their studies and become leaders in their Aboriginal communities.

Eligibility:

Awarded to four (4) full-time students (2 must be Aboriginal) from the Merritt campus who enrolled in a minimum 60% course load in any program. The students must meet their program's minimum grade point average and demonstrate financial need. The students will be expected to write a 300-600 word essay on community involvement in both their home and NVIT communities. Successful recipients will be expected to attend the first scheduled fellowship meeting held at the Crossroads Church with the Somang Mission Community group.

Value:

Each year, the Somang Mission Community will donate four (4) awards of $300 each, to be disbursed at the annual NVIT awards ceremony.

Process:

Students must complete the following application process. Complete this checklist:

- Complete and sign the application form
- Submit proof of Aboriginal ancestry (copy of status/metis card or letter from Nation declaring ancestry) if applicable
- Complete the budget information form
- Submit a 300-600 word essay on community involvement in both their home and NVIT communities

Deadline:

The deadline to submit the application for the Somang Mission Community Bursary is April 30, 2019 by 4:30pm to the Registrar's Office. Incomplete applications will not be accepted. Students may appeal the award decision by submitting a written letter to the Awards Adjudication Committee attention:
