

Three Links Foundation Future Leaders Award

2024 Application

Purpose:

The purpose of the Three Links Foundation is to promote and support charitable and benevolent work in British Columbia, with emphasis towards current societal needs.

Eligibility:

Awarded to Indigenous students from BC First Nations groups (non-status/self-identifying included), enrolled in minimum 60% course load in any program or field. The students must demonstrate financial need. The students are expected to submit an application, a budget form and a letter to the Three Links Foundation explaining their educational goals and how the award will help them achieve those goals. The letter should also include a description of any leadership experience the student has demonstrated in their community.

Value:

$1000 bursary awarded to a full-time Indigenous student from BC First Nations groups (non-status/self-identifying included). The recipient must attend either the Merritt or Vancouver campus.

Process:

Students must complete the following application checklist:

- Complete and sign the application form.
- Fill out the budget information sheet.
- Include a letter to the Three Links Foundation, 300 words or less. Your letter will be reviewed by the adjudication committee. The successful recipient's letter will be shared with the Three Links Foundation.

Deadline:

The NVIT Registration Office must receive applications by 4:30pm on March 15, 2024. Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted. Please drop off or email awards package. Students may appeal the award decision by submitting a written letter to the awards adjudication committee attention:
