

Micheal and Cecilia Street Memorial Entrance Bursary

2025 Application

Purpose:

This award is established in loving memory of Micheal and Cecilia Street, two remarkable individuals whose unwavering passion for education and dedication to community transformation continue to inspire all who knew them. Both Micheal and Cecilia came from humble beginnings, yet their determination to overcome challenges and pursue knowledge shaped not only their own lives but also the lives of countless others.

As devoted parents, they instilled in their daughters the values of perseverance, curiosity, and the power of education to uplift and empower. Today, their legacy lives on through their daughters, who are also deeply connected to higher education, embodying the same spirit of learning and service that defined their parents.

This memorial award honours Micheal and Cecilia's enduring commitment to education and their belief in its transformative potential. It supports students who, like them, demonstrate resilience, a passion for learning, and a vision for making a difference in the world. Through this award, their legacy will continue to inspire future generations to reach beyond their circumstances and achieve their fullest potential.

Eligibility:

The Micheal and Cecilia Street Memorial Bursary is awarded to one (1) full-time, Indigenous student (non-status/self-identifying included) from the Merritt or Vancouver campus, who is enrolled in a minimum 80% course load in any field of study (Developmental Education, Employment Skills Access, Youth Explore Trades, and Bridging to Trades are excluded). The recipients must demonstrate financial need and dedication to their studies, display citizenship qualities, and describe their balance between home (including hobbies), work and educational lifestyles. The student must have attained a minimum 3.0 (B) grade point average in their current year of studies.

Criteria:

Students will be required to submit the following information (incomplete application packages will not be accepted):

- ☐ Completed and signed application form;
- ☐ Community or instructor character reference letter; and
- ☐ Personal essay.
  - 300-500 words, typed-written, double-spaced, personal essay describing your career goals, and how you balance your home, work and educational lifestyles; please include a title page with your full name, the deadline date, and the title, "Career Goals".

Value:

Each year, the Street family will donate one (1) award of $1500 to be distributed at the beginning of each academic year in September.

Deadline:

The NVIT Registration Office must receive applications by 4:30pm on August 15, 2025. If August 15th lands on a weekend, the application will be due the last business day before the deadline. Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted.
